

DAY LONG C 500 MG

PROLONGED RELEASE BEADLET ANTIOXIDANT

- Strengthens immune response
- Maintains capillary strength
- Promotes collagen formation for skin, bone, joint, tissue strength and health
- Protects against bruising, increases iron absorption
- Gluten Free
- Contains no artificial flavors, colors or preservatives; no wheat, gluten, milk, eggs, peanuts, tree nuts, crustacean shellfish or fish.

Vitamin C health benefits are well documented. Prolonged release beadlet technology increases superior absorption throughout the day, over three to six hours, similar to nutrient absorption from our meals.

Added bioflavonoids increase bioavailability and absorption and the many benefits Vitamin C with bioflavonoids provide.
