3M™ Skin Health Product Guide
Pressure Ulcer – Stage I
- Non-blanchable erythema, Skin intact

Pressure Ulcer – Stage II / Superficial Stage III
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage

Pressure Ulcer – Deep Stage III & Stage IV
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage
- Moderate to Heavy Drainage

Pressure Ulcer Heels
- Erosions, broken or sloughing tissue and symptoms of infection

Diabetic (Neuropathic) Foot Ulcer
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Partial Thickness
- Full Thickness
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage
- Partial Thickness
- Full Thickness

Venous Insufficiency Leg Ulcer
- Moderate to Heavy Drainage

Arterial Ulcer
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Partial Thickness
- Full Thickness
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage
- Partial Thickness
- Full Thickness

Surgical Wound
- Closed: Edges Approximated
- Open: Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Open: Moderate to Heavy Drainage

Skin Tear
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage

Superficial Wound (Partial thickness burns, abrasions)
- Dry to Minimal Drainage
- Minimal to Moderate Drainage

---

Note: Assess for signs and symptoms of infection. Consult a physician or wound care specialist to evaluate wounds that show symptoms of infection or fail to progress with topical therapy and adjunctive therapies.